ADRES

ADRES (Association pour le Développement de de la Recherche en Economie et en Statistiques) is the Association for the Development of Research in Economics and Statistics. ADRES is a Research Group of CNRS Human and Social Sciences. ADRES aims to stimulate and disseminate research in the fields of theoretical economics, applied economics, econometrics and statistics. In particular, ADRES aims to promote the integration of young researchers in these fields into the job market, both nationally and internationally.

Venue

The conference will be held at Centre Panthéon of Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne in Paris. Plenary sessions will be held in Amphithéâtre III, while parallel sessions will be in rooms 2, 211, 212, 214, 216, 307.

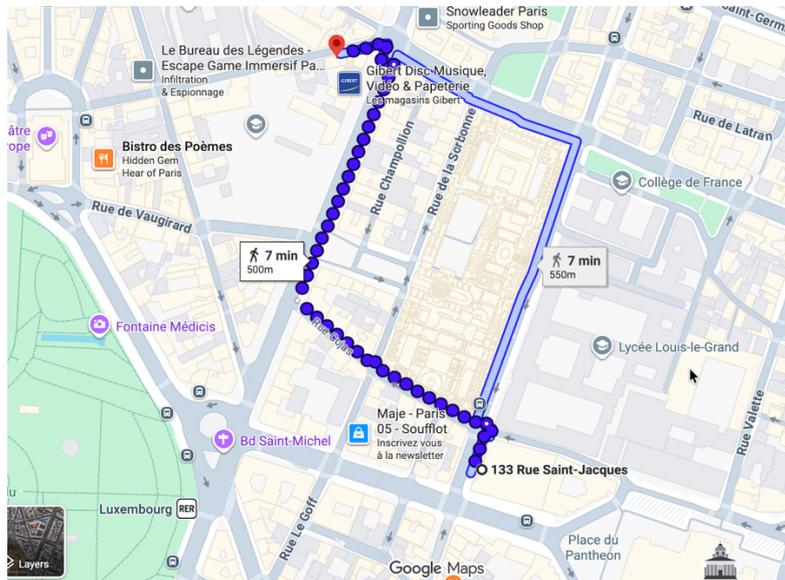

Coffee breaks will be in Appartement Décanal (on Thursday) or Room Goullencourt (on Friday). Lunch will be served in Appartement Décanal on both days.

You may refer to the map below for a general picture of the Centre Panthéon building.

Conference dinner: Le Bouillon Racine

Please note that the conference dinner will be on Thursday 22nd at 7:00pm. There will be a very short time between the end of the Round table on the French job market and the dinner, but the restaurant is located at a short walking distance from the Conference venue. We apologize for any inconvenience but we could not choose the exact time at the restaurant. See the map below for the itinerary between the venue and the restaurant.
